Approved For Release 1 SECULIARY REPORT NO. 25X1A DATE OF CONTEN MATE OF CONTEN DATE OF CON	,	Aı	CLASSIFICA oproved For Re	CONFIDENTIAL TION	CIA-RDP82-00457R	15 OTT.Y 010400280007-3	The second secon
DATE OF CONTENDATE OF CONTENDA		_			REPORT	NO	25X1A
ANTE OF CONTEN MATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED Bytween 11 s.m. and 2 p.m. on 8 December 1951, Grossenhain sirfield was observed from its western and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 300 neters and rishility was limited to shout 5 km. Four 183-150 without suxiliary fuel tasks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 s.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangers were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1A Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter repirants previously stationed there had four planes thick were observed at the field after 20 Cotokor were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently recaised in Prossenhain.	TOPIC	Grosset	hain Mirfield	MINESTERN PREMIUM INTRODUCTION Appropriate Section	G al-Mail Tills with Million. See that has have now, a properties data of Million III Applicate ware not delivere.	a pri et ery executivementament englisticated en executivement g	makatikanika (app. kainta) iku tikanika kanca kit ata, mpilingi makati
ANTE OF CONTEN MATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED Bytween 11 s.m. and 2 p.m. on 8 December 1951, Grossenhain sirfield was observed from its western and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 300 neters and rishility was limited to shout 5 km. Four 183-150 without suxiliary fuel tasks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 s.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangers were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1A Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter repirants previously stationed there had four planes thick were observed at the field after 20 Cotokor were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently recaised in Prossenhain.			The same state of the same of	and the state of the control of the state of	TENERAL AND	on the state of the substitute
DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED. A January 1952 DEFERENCES DEFERENCE	EVALUATIO	ONN	25X1X	PLACE OBTA	INED	25X1A
Determine 25X1X Determ	DATE OF (CONTEN		25X1A		to MIN Ship Your Supranulation state about the company and a payment the same of the company and the company a
DURCE 25X1X Between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 8 December 1951, Grossenhain airfield was observed from its vestern and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 300 meters and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four "Mo-15s without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1A Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S. S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in drossenhain.	DATE OBT	AINED		DA	TE PREPARED8	January 1952
DURCE Botween 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 8 December 1951, Grossenhain airfield was observed from its western and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 300 neters and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four Mid-15s without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October uere assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.	EFERENC	ES	Mily contemporaries in the least the contemporaries of the contemporaries of the page 200.	American Communication of the	Метерия из таких полотерия изгажа денератель и изгажа и изгажа и и и и и и и и и и и и и и и и и и
Doubteen 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 8 December 1951, Grossenhain airfield was observed from its western and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 300 metors and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four High-Lis without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October uere assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.	AGES	1	ENCLOSURES	(NO. & TYPE)		The part of Participation Charles Brillion CT of Translation
Doubteen 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 8 December 1951, Grossenhain airfield was observed from its western and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 300 metors and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four High-Lis without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October uere assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.	EMARKS.	,			TO CIN
Botween 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 8 December 1951, Grossenhain airfield was observed from its western and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 300 metors and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four High-Lis without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October uere assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.				TUP:	MAN
Doubteen 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 8 December 1951, Grossenhain airfield was observed from its western and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 300 metors and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four High-Lis without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October uere assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.	The Marketon Conference on Law			115.1	Bur	elementario (nel medicale desperatorio esta esta districtorio del malerrario del medicale del malerrario del m	and the state of t
Botween 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 8 December 1951, Grossenhain airfield was observed from its western and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 30 neters and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four Mid-15s without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 0. tober 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.				The second section of the section of the second section of the second section of the second section of the section of the second section of the secti	am allemanusterio estr. Palle 1710 respecto discentente e i sconder signi (pripar Le m	and a second of their residence of the size construction in the problem, with the second construction of the Botween 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on 6 December 1951, Grossenhain sirfield was observed from its western and southern sides. There was a cloud base of about 30 meters and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four Mid-15s without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 0. total 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.	erwenten ber ber en enpryteine	THE STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY.		meller region to the day of the second secon	CAR Material Control of the Control	ordered Paris, so, martin annum ett 2000 met attänett des austrafhans et	This is the common the latter of the common common sections in about 300 meters and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four MiG-15s without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at ll a.m. and took off toward the east at l2:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.	OURCE			25X1X about 300 neters and visibility was limited to about 5 km. Four Mid-15s without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field.* 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.		Between	11 a m and 1		3.050.0
without auxiliary fuel tanks were in the southwestern corner of the field. A biplane landed at the field at ll a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field. 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.		observed	ira.m. and a	term and south	ember 1951, Gross	enhain airfield	was
A biplane landed at the field at 11 a.m. and took off toward the east at 12:30 p.m. The hangars were closed. There was no activity. No radio installations were observed in the vicinity of the field. 25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 O.teber 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.		about 30	10 meters and	visibility was	limited to about	Elm Form 174	י זרה
25X1Å Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.		OT CHOUS	auxiliary lue	el tanks were in	the southwestern	a common of the	* 64.07.0
25X1A Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.		TETOTO W	ig tanded at i	the field at 11	a.m. and took of	f tomorno the en	at at
Comment. The field was probably not occupied by an air unit on the day of observation. The two fighter regiments previously stationed there had left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.		installa	om. Ine name Itions wave of	urs were closed.	There was no ac	tivity. No ra	dio left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.					recently of one f.	retro * left for the U.S.S.R. on 20 October 1951. According to another source, the four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.
four planes which were observed at the field after 20 October were assigned to the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.	25X1A	clare of o	mment. The f	ield was probab	oly not occupied b	y an air unit	on the
the fighter division headquarters which apparently remained in Grossenhain.		left for	the U.S.S.P.	on 20 O-tehen	regiments previo	ously stationed	there had
CONFIDENTIAL		TOUR DIS	nes which wer	'e observed at t	the field ofter 20	Ontrology more	and the desired
CONFIDENTIAL		the figh	ter division	headquarters wh	ich apparently re	mained in Gros	senhain.
			•
					•
				•
		e. •
						**
				·	•
			,
					•••
CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE	LO/B		CLASSIFICATION			Dî:LY and the section of th	OLAGOR TOAT!	VI4	The state of the s
				•	Thomas	ment No. An	7
Decument No 00 7

Approved For Release 2002/08/08: CIA-RDP82-00457R0104602850097-378